the flower also on parchment paper, work it with embossing powder and a heat tool and cut it out. Repeat this with a butterfly. Attach everything to the card. Punch a hole in the top of the front panel and thread a bow with a charm through it.

Felt bird

Hearts made by Marianne Perlot
www.mariannedesign.nl

General:
The hearts are sewn together in backstitch, running stitch or blanket stitch using two threads of DMC-thread. Stuff the hearts with fiberfill just before making the last stitches. To decorate the front of the hearts, it's best to do that before stitching the two hearts together. But the hearts can also be sewn together first and the smaller parts can be decorated separately and later be glued on. It's easy to glue even the smaller pieces of felt. Finally attach the ribbon.

Cut two large hearts from white felt. Cut the bird and a wing from grey felt and use white and pink felt for the other smaller parts. Decorate the bird along the edges with a backstitch of white DMC-thread. Sew a pink heart onto the wing and sew a small white heart onto a larger pink heart. Decorate the bird with small beads. Sew the two hearts together in backstitch with pink DMC-thread. Finish the heart off with the small parts and a pink ribbon.

Cut two large hearts from grey felt and a small one from white felt. Sew the white heart onto the grey heart in blanket stitch with pink DMC-thread. Cut the small rose from pink felt, start rolling it around a cocktail stick from the outside to the inside and then add some glue to the bottom edges. Leave to dry. Cut out a branch, placing the template onto the felt in such a way that only the branch will be cut out. Then stick the branch to the heart and embroider pink beads onto it. Sew the two halves of the grey heart together. Finish the heart off with the rose and a white ribbon.

Cut two large hearts from pink felt and a small one from white felt. Embroider the small heart to one of the large hearts using small pink beads. Using pink DMC-thread, sew white hearts to the grey hearts in backstitch. Cut the large rose from pink felt, start rolling it around a cocktail stick from the outside to the inside and then add some glue to the bottom edges. Leave to dry. Sew the two large hearts together in blanket stitch with white DMC-thread. Sew a pearl to the centre of the heart after the rose has dried. Finish the heart off with the rose and a white ribbon.
