Ink around all edges with distress ink, except the ones of the motorbike and the Tower of Pisa.

Cut a 15 x 15 cm single-fold kraft card and a 14 x 14 cm light blue card. Cut design paper with small checks into 13.5 x 13.5 cm. Fix two eyelets in the top right corner, 3 cm apart. Cut light blue card into 13.5 x 7 cm and 13.5 x 6 cm, striped design paper into 13.5 x 6.5 cm and design paper with big checks into 13.5 x 5.5 cm. Firstly adhere them to the plain coloured strips and then onto the design paper with small checks. Cut 7 x 8 cm jeans paper. Die cut the largest shield from kraft card. Die cut the man's heads from light blue and jeans paper.

From the jeans paper only the hat is used. Fix two small brads through the shield; attach the man's head with thin foam tape. Attach the hat with thin foam tape too. Die cut the motorbike and the Tower of Pisa from gold-coloured card. Die cut the large postage stamp from kraft card and the small one from light blue card. Stick a small Italian label to the postcard and stamp texts onto both die cut stamps. Tuck the Tower of Pisa under the postcard and adhere the elements, including the motorbike, to the card using foam tape. Tie a length of rope through the eyelets. Assemble the layers together onto the light blue square and then onto the single-fold kraft card.

General

Ink around all edges with distress ink, except the ones of the motorbike, the Big Ben and the Eiffel Tower.

Cut a 15 x 15 cm single-fold dark blue card and a 14 x 14 cm kraft card. Cut design paper with diamonds into 13.5 x 13.5 cm. Die cut four stamps from kraft card. Adhere jeans paper of 7.5 x 12 cm to the largest one and striped paper of 5.3 x 3.6 cm to the one but smallest. Die cut the motorbike, the Eiffel Tower and the Tower of Pisa from silver-coloured card; adhere the last two to the largest die cut stamp using thin foam tape. Die cut the shield from design paper with big checks and fix two brads into the corners. Die cut the man's head 1x from dark blue and 1x from kraft card. Attach them using thin foam tape. Attach the shield at a slant. Stamp the text and the postage stamps onto the two small die cut stamps. Attach the two large die cut stamps onto the checked design paper. Firstly stick the smallest one in the bottom right corner using thin foam tape. Stick the larger one partly on top using thicker tape. Adhere the motorbike also with the thicker foam tape. Assemble the layers together on the kraft card and then onto the dark blue card. Add buttons and tie a charm to a length of rope to complete.

General

Ink around all edges with distress ink, except the ones of the Big Ben.

Cut a 15 x 15 cm single-fold beige card and a 14 x 14 cm dark blue square. Cut design paper with small checks into 13.5 x 13.5 cm. Cut a 7 x 10.5 cm strip from the map of London. Die cut the Big Ben from gold-coloured card and layer onto the map using thin foam tape. Die cut the photo camera from kraft card and choose a nice picture of the design paper to stick behind the lens. Tie a length of rope through the eye on the camera. Cut 6.5 x 9.5 cm kraft card and 6 x 9 cm jeans paper. Die cut the man's head out of the jeans paper; layer the paper onto the kraft card and fix brads in the corners. Die cut the man's head from beige card too and stick it near the other head as shown, to create a shadow effect. Die cut the dark blue card and use adhesive pearls as hub-caps. Die cut the shield from kraft card and stamp the text. Fix two eyelets through the shield, 2.5 cm apart and tie a rope through them. Die cut a beige ticket and stamp the postage stamp. Cut off a strip and a piece of the photo strip. Layer the map onto design paper with small checks slantwise and adhere the other parts with foam tape. Tuck the photo strips and the ticket as shown. Firstly assemble the elements onto the dark blue card and then onto the beige base card. Add two buttons to complete.
