Materials:

Creatables: LR0753 (Spring Wreath), LR0773 (Text - Fijne Kerst), Die cut and embossing machine, Stamp+die set: TC0902 (Tiny's Poinsettia), Stamping ink Versamark: transparent, Embossing powder: gold, Stamp Master: LR0029, Distress ink: bundled sage, saltwater taffy, Watercolour paper: 200 g, Velvet card: white, Metallic paper A4: CA3171 (gold), Soft glitter paper A4: CA3143 (gold), Shaker snow: LR0028, Adhesive pearls: CA3132

(white), Enamel dots: PL4521 (duotone red), (Water-)brush, 3D-foam, Micro glue dots/narrow double-sided tape, Heat tool

Cut white velvet card into a 10.5 x 21 cm single-fold card. Die cut from white velvet card 4x the text and 3x the wreath. Die cut from gold-coloured metallic paper 1x the text and 1x the wreath. Adhere the texts and wreaths together with the gold-coloured ones on top.

Die cut extra leaves from soft glitter card and gold-coloured metallic paper.

Stamp the poinsettia 2x with transparent Versamark ink onto watercolour paper and work with gold-coloured embossing powder and a heat tool. Then cut out with the matching die. Colour in the poinsettias with distress ink and a water brush. Cut 9.5 x 20 cm watercolour paper and create a spotted background with green distress ink and a water brush. Mat on gold-coloured metallic paper and adhere to the card.

Adhere the wreath, poinsettias and text. Add the extra leaves to the wreath. The metallic paper is very smooth, glue may not stick properly, so micro glue dots or double-sided tape might be needed.

Place glue dots randomly across the card and the edge of the wreath and poinsettias and sprinkle shaker snow on top. Complete the card with enamel dots.
