Materials used for all cards:

Shadow paper or Watercolour paper: white, Inkpad: Versafine onyx black, Shadow painting liner, Shadow paint: Delft blue, Brush

Extra needed for this card:
 Clear stamps: PP2801 (Tulips), PP2802 (Windmill-frame used), Cord: dark blue 1 mm thick

Cut Shadow paper into a 10.5 x 10.5 cm single-fold card and a 10.5 x 10.5 cm square. Stamp in waterproof black ink the frame on to the card and the tulips on to a scrap of Shadow paper, set aside to dry. Use Shadow painting liner to trace the black lines of the stamped tulips, set aside to dry. Colour in the tulips with Delft blue Shadow paint; a little water can be used to dilute the paint/reduce the intensity of the colour. Use a brush or spray to make the 10.5 x 10.5 cm card wet. Apply a little Shadow paint onto one half of the card with a brush and carefully let it run to the other half of the card. Set aside to dry. Cut away the paper within the frame, leaving a narrow white border. Cut out the tulips with a narrow white border and adhere with foam tape inside the card. Wrap dark blue cord around the front flap and tie the ends at the front.

Extra needed for this card:
 Clear stamps: PP2806 (Sailing boat), PP2805 (Dutch rooster-frame used)

Cut Shadow paper into a 11 x 11 cm single-fold card and two 10 x 10 cm squares, one 11 x 11 cm square and one 9 x 9 cm. Stamp the frame in waterproof black ink onto the 10 x 10 cm squares, set aside to dry. Stamp the ship onto a scrap of Shadow paper, set aside to dry. Use Shadow painting liner to trace the black lines of the frames and ship and set aside to dry. Colour in the two frames with Delft blue Shadow paint, a little water can be used to dilute the paint/reduce the intensity of the colour. Set aside to dry. Colour in the ship in the same way and set aside to dry. Use a brush or spray to make the 9 x 9 cm card wet. Apply a little Shadow paint onto one half of the card with a brush and carefully let it run to the other half of the card. Set aside to dry. Cut out the ship with a narrow white border. Cut away the circle of one of the coloured frames, but leave a narrow white border. Second frame: cut away the circle and the inner square, but leave a narrow white border near the corner ornaments and the square frame. Adhere the two frames together with foam tape, the frame without the circle on top. Adhere the ship with foam tape to the coloured 9 x 9 cm square. Then adhere the two frames with foam tape to the card with the ship and finally onto the single-fold card.

Extra needed for this card:
 Clear stamps: PP2804 (Dutch Canal houses), PP2802 (Windmill-frame used), Card: dark blue

Cut Shadow paper into a 11.5 x 11.5 cm single-fold card and squares of 10 x 10 cm, 9.5 x 9.5 cm and 9 x 9 cm. Stamp the frame in waterproof ink onto the 9.5 x 9.5 cm square, set aside to dry. Stamp the canal houses to a scrap of Shadow paper and set aside to dry. Use the Shadow painting liner to trace the black lines of the frames and the houses, set aside to dry. Colour in the canal houses with Delft blue Shadow paint, a little water can be used to dilute the paint/reduce the intensity of the colour. Set aside to dry. Use a brush or spray to make the 9 x 9 cm card wet. Apply a little Shadow paint onto one half of the card with a brush and carefully let it run to the other half of the card. Set aside to dry. Use a brush or spray to make the 10 x 10 cm card wet. Apply a little Shadow paint to the card with a brush, creating a hardly diluted dark blue colour and set aside to dry. Cut away the centre of the top card, leaving a narrow white border. Cut out the canal houses with a narrow white border. Adhere to the coloured 9 x 9 cm square using foam tape. Adhere the frame with foam tape to the card with the canal houses and then to a 10 x 10 cm dark blue card using double-sided tape. Finish off by adhering the dark blue to the single-fold card using double-sided tape.
